Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, are ſo ſenſible of the great Loſs we have ſuſtained by the Death of our Sovereign King William the Third, of ever glorious memory, that nothing leſs than the clear Proſpect we have of thoſe Bleſſings we juſtly expect to enjoy under Your Majeſties Reign, could bring us Comfort under ſo great and juſt an Affliction.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AS we are moſt ſenſibly affected with the Death of his late Majeſty, who, by the immediate Providence of Heaven, was the Deliverer of theſe Kingdoms from Popery and Slavery, ſo we do moſt humbly Congratulate Your Majeſties happy Acceſſion to the Throne; hoping, that as your Royal Predeceſſor did by her Virgin Arms Controul the once Haughty Power of Spain, ſo your Royal Name will be for ever Illuſtrious, that under your Reign the Exorbitant Power of France is Reduced, the Emperor Supported in the Acquiſition and Defence of his juſt Rights, the States of Holland Protected, our Religion, Laws and Liberties Preſerved, and all Europe freed from the Fears of an Univerſal Tyranny: That the Almighty would pleaſe to make the Triumphs and Bleſſings of Your Majeſties Government, ſhall be the conſtant Prayers of us Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, who do hereby profeſs our unalterable Reſolution of ſacrificing all that is dear to us in Defence of your Royal Perſon and Government, againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, and all your Enemies. May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do, upon this Solemn Occaſion, with all Humility, beg leave to teſtify our ſincere Grief for the unſpeakable Loſs which theſe Kingdoms have ſuſtained by the Death of our late Sovereign Lord King William, of Heroick Memory; and withal our unfeigned Joy for the high Reparation which it has pleaſed the Divine Goodneſs to make for that Loſs, in placing Your moſt Sacred Majeſty on the Throne of your Royal Progenitors.

Your Majeſty has graciouſly been pleaſed to lay open your Heart before us, to let us ſee that it is truly Engliſh, and to give us your inviolable Word for the Defence of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, againſt all Oppoſers whatſoever: In return whereto, we think our ſelves obliged not only to preſent our hearty Thanks to Your Majeſty for ſo great Condeſcenſion, but to aſſure Your Majeſty, That nothing ſhall be wanting on our Parts to make your Reign over us Secure, Honourable, Happy, Great at Home, and not leſs Glorious Abroad.

May that God, by whom Kings and Queens do Govern, preſerve you for the Good of this Church and State, and give you a ſure (tho' a late) Reward in that Eternal State which is before you.

Upon this occaſion we think our ſelves obliged to aſſure Your Majeſty of our ſteadfaſt and conſtant Obedience to your Government, and of our ſincere Reſolutions to exert the utmoſt of our Abilities in the Defence of Your Majeſties Sacred Perſon and Title to the Imperial Crown of this Realm, and the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line.

As we were always convinced of Your Majeſties Zeal to the Eſtabliſhment of Religion and Liberties of your Country, ſo we cannot but think our ſelves bound in Duty and Gratitude to return Your Majeſty our moſt hearty Thanks for Your Majeſties late Gracious Declaration in Council, and Speech to your Parliament; by which Your Majeſty gives your People a freſh and full Aſſurance of your Tenderneſs for them. The Affectionate and Tender Concern Your Majeſty has been pleaſed to ſhew for the Eaſe and Relief of your Subjects, whilſt under the Preſſure of neceſſary Supplies for the Service of the Publick, ſufficiently demonſtrate Your Majeſties unparalell'd Grace and Goodneſs towards them, and that your Heart is entirely Engliſh.

May all Your Majeſties Subjects think themſelves under the ſame Obligations as we eſteem our ſelves, to maintain and defend Your Majeſties unqueſtionable Right and Title to the Crown againſt all your open and ſecret Enemies, and may Your Majeſty long live, to receive the chearful Obedience of your People.

To the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE deep ſenſe we have for the loſs of his late Majeſty, would have left us no words, if at the ſame time we had not the Comfort to turn our eyes upon your Majeſty, who diſſipates our Troubles, and leaves us no care but to Congratulate your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors, and to expreſs our extream Joy to ſee a Prince over us who will feel the wounds and diſtreſſes of her Subjects, and make our Injuries her own, who will preſerve the Honor of our Common Country, and the Dignity and Purity of our Church; and however ungrateful to us the Name of Abſolute has been, Pardon us Madam, if we now think with pleaſure, that your Majeſty is the moſt ſo of the World, for you Reign in our Affections, and Govern in our Hearts,

As for us, we ſhall give continual Evidences of our unfeigned Fidelity to your Majeſty, and our Zeal for the Church of England, by ſending ſuch Members to Parliament, as will ſupport the Prerogative and Dignity of both. And what may we not then promiſe our ſelves from a Prince and a Senate that are entirely Engliſh. We ſhall ſee the ancient Genius of our Country once more reſtor'd. And we are happy, we are great, ſo long as Heaven ſhall pleaſe to let your Majeſty live among us, which to prolong is the prayers of every honeſt mind in your Dominions, and of none more then your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Bayliff, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Stockbridge in the County of Southampton.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE cannot reflect on the Death of our late Sovereign, but (with a deep Reſentment thereof) bewail the Deceaſe of that Illuſtious and Renowned Monarch.

Yet Since neither the Greateſt, nor Beſt of Kings, are privileged from that Common Lot of Mankind, with thankful Hearts we Bleſs and Adore the Great God for his infinite Goodneſs and Mercy vouchſafed to theſe Realms, compenſating our late Loſs, by Your Majeſty's happy Succeſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors; Whoſe Gracious Diſpoſition, and Exemplary Piety, as Alſo repeated Aſſurances of Your Majeſty's ſpecial Care of our Sacred as well as Civil Intereſts, work in us a comfortable Expectation of a more than ordinary Bleſſing from Heaven upon your Government: a Bleſſing which we hope may extend, not only to the Secular Felicity of this State, and Succesful Support of its Allies, but alſo to the Security of our Religion as by Law Eſtabliſhed; the Settlement of Unity, and good Order in the Church; and, together with a Suppreſſion of Prophaneneſs and Immorality, a Proportionable incouragement of Piety and Virtue in the Converſations of Men.

Our fervent Prayers are, That God may Long continue Your Reign over us, and perpetuate to Your Majeſty that Intereſt in the Hearts of all your People, which we feel the lively impreſſions of within our ſelves, and which the Bleſſings we all enjoy by your happy Reign may juſtly Challenge from us.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

AS often as we reflect on our late Glorious Deliverances effected by the Bleſſing of God on the undaunted Valour, and moſt vigilant Conduct, of our late Gracious Sovereign our Father and General, our Hearts bleed afreſh for our unſpeakable Loſs ſuſtained by his Death, under which Misfortune nothing could relieve us but our beholding Your Majeſty ſeated on the Throne after him, Your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion, to which we humbly crave Leave, with other of Your Majeſty's Loyal Subjects, to Congratulate; rejoicing, and from our Hearts expreſſing our Thanks to Your Majeſty for your pious and tender Declarations for protecting the Religion, and preſerving the Laws and Liberties of your Subjects, as they are happily eſtabliſhed, for countenancing and encouraging your Allies againſt the Power of France, which as we are ſenſible can by no means be check'd and reduc'd within its due Bounds, but by the Bleſſing of God on Your Majeſties Councils and Arms, in conjunction with thoſe of your Allies; ſo we rejoice we have this opportunity to expreſs our Readineſs on all Occaſions, both with our Perſons and Fortunes, to ſupport and defend Your Majeſty, our Laws and Liberties, againſt all Uſurpers and Oppoſers whatſoever.

May Your Majeſties Reign over us be long and proſperous; and may all your Subjects with the ſame ſincerity, Affection, and Duty, as we now addreſs Your Majeſty, pray, God ſave the Queen.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Lyn-Regis was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir John Turner, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Rt. Hon. Charles Lord Viſcount Townesheud Lord Lieutenant of the County of Norfolke.

To the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, and chief Inhabitants of the Borough of Kings-Lynn, in Norfolke.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WHen our Hearts were afflicted with mournful Thoughts for the Death of our late Sovereign King William, of Glorious Memory, nothing could have proved ſo great an Allay to our Grief, as the happy Acceſſion of your Sacred Majeſty to the Throne, your Lawful and Undoubted Right, for which we joyfully adore the Divine Providence.

Nor could any thing add greater Conſolation to us than the Satisfaction we always had, and the gracious Inſtances Your Majeſty has ſince vouchſafed to give us of your Princely Affection to your People, your known pious Zeal and Regard to our eſtabliſhed Religion and Laws, and your early Care for the Common Intereſt of Europe.

We therefore, under the higheſt Obligations of Duty and Gratitude, humbly tender to your moſt Excellent Majeſty this moſt ſincere Teſtimony of our conſtant Fidelity and Obedience, and proſtrate at your Royal feet all that we have for the Defence of your Sacred Perſon and Government, againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other your Enemies; And ſhall ever pray for Your Majeſties long and happy Reign over us.

WE Your Majeſties moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do moſt humbly and heartily Congratulate your happy Acceſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Kingdoms; and nothing but ſo great a Bleſſing as the Succeſſion of a Princeſs of ſuch eminent Virtues and Royal Endowments could moderate our moſt unexpreſſible Grief for the Loſs of our late moſt Glorious Prince King William the Third, of ever bleſſed memory, who did ſo Gloriouſly reſcue us your Subjects of this Kingdom from Popery and Arbitrary Government. Your Majeſties great Zeal for the Support and Defence of the Proteſtant Religion, your known Affection to your Kingdoms and People, and your late Gracious Aſſurances you have been pleaſed to give of continuing the ſame, do give us an entire Confidence of your Gracious and happy Reign over us.
